

Charter of the Corporate Governance and Compliance Committee of the Board of Directors of
Oxford Immunotec Global PLC

1. Purpose. The purposes of the Corporate Governance and Compliance Committee (the “Committee”) are (i) to periodically review and oversee the Company’s corporate governance principles; (ii) to oversee the evaluation of the Board and its dealings with management as well as appropriate committees of the Board; and (iii) to oversee the Company’s Corporate Compliance Program.

2. Composition of the Committee. The Committee shall consist of at least three directors. Committee members may be removed by the Board of Directors in its discretion..

3. Meetings of the Committee. The Committee shall hold regularly scheduled meetings and such special meetings as circumstances dictate. The Committee shall report to the Board of Directors.

4. Responsibilities and Powers of the Committee. The Committee has direct responsibility and power to perform the following duties:

- Clearly articulate to each director what is expected, including reference to the Company's corporate governance guidelines and directors' basic duties and responsibilities with respect to attendance at Board meetings and advance review of meeting materials;
- Develop, update and recommend to the full Board a set of corporate governance guidelines applicable to the Company;
- Review the Company’s practices and policies with respect to directors, including retirement policies, the size of the Board, the ratio of employee directors to non-employee directors, the meeting frequency of the Board and the structure of Board meetings and make recommendations to the Board with respect thereto;
- Assist the Board in developing and evaluating potential candidates for executive positions (including the CEO) and oversee the development of executive succession plans;
- Review Company policies with respect to significant issues of corporate public responsibility, including contributions;
- Oversee the systems and processes established by the Company to ensure compliance with the Company’s Code of Business Conduct and Ethics, including but not limited to the Company’s Corporate Compliance Program;
- Review and assess the adequacy of this charter and submit any changes to the Board for approval; and
- Report its actions and any recommendations to the Board on a periodic basis.

5. Actions of the Committee. In order to fulfill its role, the Committee shall be entitled to act in the following manner, in each case in accordance with the Company's Articles of Association:

- Action may be taken by the Committee upon the affirmative vote of a majority of the members;
- Any two members or the Chairman of the Committee may call a meeting of the Committee upon due notice to each other member at least 48 hours prior to the meeting;
- Action may be taken by the Committee without a meeting if all of the members of the Committee indicate their approval thereof in writing; and
- The Committee shall have the authority to delegate to subcommittees of the Committee any of the responsibilities of the full Committee and to officers of the Company such responsibilities of the full Committee as may be permitted by applicable laws, rules or regulations and in accordance with the listing rules of The NASDAQ Stock Market.

6. Authority and Resources of the Committee. The Committee shall also have the authority to retain legal, accounting or other experts that it determines to be necessary to carry out its duties and to determine compensation for such advisors.
